SPC Theatre to present one-act plays Oct. 2-4, 5

LEVELLAND – The South Plains College Theatre will present “An Evening of One-Act Plays” at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 2-4 and 2 p.m. on Oct. 5.

SPC Theatre will present “The Diaries of Adam and Eve” and it will be followed by “The Actor’s Nightmare” after intermission.

“The Diaries of Adam and Eve” was adapted by David Birney from “Adam’s Diary” and “Diary for Eve” by Mark Twain. The comedy was originally broadcast on American Playhouse and it is set in a Victorian garden. The play is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

The cast features Garrison Marricie as Adam, Makka Dee Hewitt as Eve and Michaela Alaniz as stage manager.

“The Actor’s Nightmare” is a comedic story about George who casually wanders on stage and finds himself in the middle of a play.

The cast features Aaron Gregg as George, Dot Lamb as Meg, Nicole Keeling as Sarah Siddon, Amanda Espinoza as Dame Ellen Terry, Brian Lee as Henry Irving, Rob Guajardo as the Executioner and Cara Harnes as the stage manager.

Tickets to the performances cost $7 for adults and $5 for students.
