SPC Symphonic Band, Jazz Band to perform on Nov. 11

LEVELLAND – As part of the South Plains College Fine Arts celebration, the Symphonic Band and Jazz Band will perform together during a concert at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday (Nov. 11) in the Helen DeVitt Jones Theatre for the Performing Arts.

The event is free and open to the public.

Additional Fine Arts celebration events will include band concerts, choir concerts and an open house.

The highlight of the festivities will be the special dedication ceremony for the Christine DeVitt Fine Arts Center and the Helen DeVitt Jones Theatre for the Performing Arts on Nov. 15 (Saturday). However, because seating is limited to 220 in the Theatre, participants will need to request a ticket to attend the Gala Performance and Dedication Ceremony.

For more information, contact Latha Tucker at 806-716-2261.
