SPC to host program on nursing careers

DENVER CITY – Are you a LVN? Do you want to be a RN? South Plains College will host an informational session about nursing careers at 3:30 p.m. June 10 in the Conference Room of the Yoakum County Hospital, located at 412 Mustang Ave.

Vicki Bordelon, recruiter for the health occupations division at SPC, will be on hand to discuss careers in nursing including licensed vocational nursing and registered nursing.

Bordelon also can provide information on other health occupations including:

- Radiology Technology
- Respiratory Care
- Surgical Technology
- Applied Rehabilitation Psychology
- Child Development
- Emergency Medical Services
- Health Information Technology

For more information, call the hospital at 806-592-2121.
