Four SPC ensembles featured at Cactus Theatre

LEVELLAND – Four ensembles from South Plains College’s Creative Arts Department will be featured nightly at the Cactus Theatre in Lubbock, 1812 Buddy Holly.

The shows begin at 7:30 p.m. nightly through Thursday (April 23). Admission is free.

Groove Night featuring the SPC Touring Ensemble will perform tonight. The band will play new pop, R&B and rock songs as well as a smoking hot medley of tunes by Earth, Wind & Fire.

Alterna TV, featuring face-melting metal and alternative rock music, will play Tuesday. Sonny Borba, instructor of commercial music, directs the band.

Wednesday night is “Classic Country Night” and will feature traditional country music by SPC’s Country Jukebox and Bob Wills’ music by the South Plains Playboys and Dixie Dewdrops Western Swing Ensemble.

Thursday Nite Live, featuring high-energy musical variety and classic jazz styles, will play Thursday. The Jazz Real Book Ensemble from SPC will be special guests.

For more information, contact Cary Banks, chairperson of the Creative Arts Department, at (806) 716-2280.
