SPC announces Barton Service Award nominees

LEVELLAND – South Plains College will select the winner of the 2009 Jerry Barton Service Achievement Award during its annual Service Club Luncheon at 11:45 a.m. April 15 in the Sundown Room of the Student Center.

Each year, the Levelland service clubs nominate an outstanding member for the Jerry Barton Service Achievement Award. This member has gone above and beyond through service to their club and community.

“This is the eighth annual award program dedicated to recognizing and honoring our service clubs and organizations at South Plains College,” said Dane Dewbre, SPC associate dean of college relations. “Volunteers play an essential and vital role in the Levelland community.”
