LEVELLAND – South Plains College will name the winner of the 2009 Jerry Barton Service Achievement Award during its annual Service Club Luncheon at 11:45 a.m. Wednesday (April 15) in the Sundown Room of the Student Center.

Levelland service clubs nominate an outstanding member for the Jerry Barton Service Achievement Award each year. The nominee has gone above and beyond through service to his or her club and community.

The 2009 nominees for the Jerry Barton Service Award are Jerry Sitton, Levelland Evening Lions Club; Russell Vest, Levelland Noon Lions Club; Donna Edwards, Levelland Marigolds; the Rev. Wayne Horton, Levelland Breakfast Rotary Club; and Joe Tubb, Levelland Noon Rotary Club.

“South Plains College is honored to present this annual award to recognize our service clubs and organizations,” said Dane Dewbre, SPC associate dean of college relations.

The Levelland Breakfast Rotary Club will host the annual luncheon with entertainment provided by an ensemble from the SPC Creative Arts Department.
