Diversity Statement: In this class, I will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. Great value is placed on freedom of expression, however certain topics are considered overdone or cliché. These topics will NOT be approved for presentations, so it is important to discuss topic selection for each speech. Some topics may be controversial, so open and honest dialogue will be allowed. Keep in mind that each person has a valuable opinion and our goal is to present sound, reasonable examples and NOT to harass or berate. If we follow these simple rules, no person should be offended, even if they disagree. If you feel there has been some offense made, it is your responsibility to bring it to my attention, in private, as soon as possible.

Contacting your Instructor: It is important you develop a network of your peers that will allow you to get specific information more quickly. That being said, I am available for you to contact me if you have questions or concerns about your progress in this class etc. You may do that by phone if necessary, but email is preferred. You will find my information on this syllabus or the directory at: <http://www2.southplainscollege.edu/information-for/employees/employee-directory>

Graded Assignment Brief Descriptions:

1. Exams (2 @100 points each) and Final/Impromptu (100 points): Three examinations will be given in order to assess the students' grasp of the material covered in class. Two of the exams will be given during the course of the semester; the final (impromptu presentation, 100 points) will be given at the end of the semester during Finals Week. FINAL EXAMS MAY NOT BE TAKEN EARLY OR LATE. You may earn an exemption from the final exam if prior to the final you have 700 points or more with perfect attendance. Exams will cover both material discussed in class and material from the textbook.
2. Presentations (400 points): Several of the most common types of presentations will be required of students. Students will be graded on their mastery of basic speaking principles and criteria given in class. Students will also be graded on their preparation for their presentations. Speech grades will be lowered for tardies/unexcused absences.
3. Activities and Evaluations (300 points total): This is a highly interactive class that will involve a number of supporting activities. Students are expected to not only attend class, but to participate. You are required to bring your pens/pencils, paper, textbook, and syllabus to EVERY CLASS. You may earn points for activities online (10 points each, 100 points total) as chosen by the instructor. You will also complete 3 different peer evaluations and 3 self-evaluations of speeches (150 points total). Finally, your group members will also evaluate your participation during the group presentation (50 possible points). These assignments, among others, may be in class or online using your Acclaim access. Your syllabus is where you will record all grades for easy access to your progress in the course.

I DO NOT USE BLACKBOARD FOR THIS CLASS. It is important that you keep ALL assignments and online access during the semester. It is your responsibility to keep everything returned to you. In addition, I do not accept emailed assignments unless instructed to do so when assigned.

Attendance and Tardy Policy:

Please make sure you have read and understand your Student Handbook for SPC policies. For this course, all students enrolled are expected to attend class regularly, be on time, and remain until dismissed. Roll will be taken at each class meeting. If a student is tardy, he/she must see the instructor after class to have the absence mark removed. Three (3) tardies in a MWF class and two (2) in a MW, TR or once a week class will constitute an absence. If a student leaves class prior to dismissal of the class, he/she may be counted absent.

Whenever absences become excessive and, in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met, the student should initiate withdrawal from the course. A student who does not meet the attendance/course requirements of class as stated in this syllabus and does not officially withdraw from this course by the official census date of the semester may be administratively withdrawn from that course and receive a grade of "X" or "F" as determined by the instructor. Students are responsible for all class work covered during absences.

Our department abides by this policy and enforces these guidelines established for SPCH 1315:

1. Missing more than two weeks of class is considered excessive.

Example: MW/TR – 4 days allotted
 MWF – 6 days allotted
 One day/week – 2 days allotted

2. Absences one day over your allotment may lower your final course total by 10 points.
3. Each subsequent absence may lower your final course total by 5 points.
4. If minimum objectives cannot be met, the student should withdraw from the course.
5. For online sections, you MUST attend face-to-face meetings and complete online coursework. If you have more than 1 unexcused absence or miss more than 2 major online assignments, you may be dropped from the course.

Make-Up Policy: Generally, late and/or make-up work is NOT accepted. All work has a deadline and deadlines must be met even if the student is absent. When an unavoidable reason for class absence arises, such as illness, family death, emergency, an official trip authorized by the college or an official activity, I may permit the student to make up work missed ONLY IF DOCUMENTATION IS PROVIDED. This is especially important for presentation and exam days. The student should communicate with the instructor to learn what documentation is acceptable. Each student absence will be dealt with on an individual basis. If a student must be absent, she/he should advise the instructor beforehand if possible and if the student is representing the college, they should have a signed permit from his/her coach or sponsor. In all cases, it is the student's responsibility to complete work missed within a reasonable amount of time as determined by the instructor. Each student must make an appointment to make arrangements for make-up work. Also, late work may not receive full credit.
